around the object inside.

A complete service comprising soft packing through to full museum specification cases.
All complying with ISPM 15 requirements.

When we say we handle with care,
we really mean it.

History

We began life as specialists in the handling of fine art and antiques.

Now we're the international name for a wide range of services from interior design project management to contemporary installations.

Steadfast in our standards. Gander & White, for discretion, integrity and the utmost care.

1930s

The year is 1933. Walter Gander & Frank White establish a new company to pack and ship art internationally.

1950s

Following the death of King Feisal of Iraq, we are instructed by General Kassem to transport the King's exquisite furniture collection from our warehouse to Baghdad.

It's the 70s, and we are entrusted with shipping the world famous Cinzano Glass collection as it travels the globe.

1980s

In 1983 we celebrate our golden jubilee.

2000s

We are entrusted to move the world's most famous cricket trophy, The Ashes, from Lord's to the Victoria & Albert Museum. It's only the third time in history The Ashes has left Lord's.

1990s

In our 85th year we are honoured to have been granted a Royal Warrant to Her Majesty The Queen for Fine Art Services.

Present

As the world returns to normal following WWII, we are in need of new premises. In 1948 we open a warehouse in Earl's Court.
