Thank you and your excellent team for the quality job they did in hanging the Harman paintings. Mike put together a clever scaffolding which your team said would work and it did!

Your team was patient in working with our designer in getting the paintings hung just right.

Thanks again for providing such a professional team. We appreciated it!

We wanted to express how happy we were with the service your team delivered yesterday and this morning. They were so professional, friendly and went over and above, delivering all our plywood back to our offsite store this morning. They worked very well with Plowden and Smith [restoration and conservation services] too, which was lovely to see.

Thank you again for your cooperation with us. You made the install pain-free and we can't wait to show it to the public when the exhibition opens.
